

Item Lister and DSIMS Enhancements

Library Services and Content Management learned this morning that planned enhancements to Item Lister and the Depository Selection Information Management System (DSIMS) were moved to our live site last night. Further details on enhancements will be released later today. Libraries using these tools may notice some interface changes in the meantime. We apologize for any confusion.